Finding the ideal job for you, of course, is about more than just salary. It's a complex mix of where you are, your qualifications, your personal interests and ambitions and who's hiring now.

Outlook shows the projected demand for employees in the field in 2022:

↗ = more than 1 job available per job seeker — lots of opportunity

→ = about 1 job available per job seeker — balanced opportunity

↘ = less than 1 job available per job seeker — low opportunity
